When i posted my post on the 4chan org site at the seoul metropolitan police agency s cybercrime investigation office i found that 4chan org posted on the 4chan org site as a result of this it is reported that the above site is located in the united states and the time posted on this site is output to domestic time do you accept the above

Answer yes i understood and acknowledged the contents that the investigator showed directly not many people watch the posted time zone while writing on the internet

At this time i show an investigation report analysis of the google chrome browser capture function and analysis of the writing screen of the website of the us white house

If you look at the following five files found on the suspect s laptop it is a file created by capturing directly from the suspect s laptop through a google chrome browser seencapture www whitehouse gov contact submit questions and comments 1432397652564.png and seencapture www whitehouse gov contact submit questions and comments 1432397921271.png file on may 5 2015 at 01 14 and 01 17 and the 13 digit number shown next to the capture file name is the same as the generation time of the generated file the above 13 digit number is the time information that is automatically generated when the capture is performed by google chrome the time when the capture file was created on the notebook and the date and time when the capture was generated are considered to be the same

As a result if the suspect is downloaded from the internet i ve found an hour capture program can not be the same there is confirmation that the suspect has written articles connected directly to the white house website is not that a suspect directly after article creation capture the investigator attached the encase analysis screen to the record this long question is the answer of the suspect
